New Library Hours

Friday*
10am - 5pm

Tuesday and Thursday

Closed Saturday and Sunday

Due to a decreased budget, it has become necessary to reduce our hours beginning Jan. 16, 2018. We apologize for any inconvenience this change may cause you as we attempt to offer our valued patrons continued service and programs.

Our Children's Librarian, Miss Elise leaves us this month as she has accepted a full-time position at a different library. She has been with us here at Terryville Library for 4 1/2 years and has led several successful and enjoyable programs such as Crazy 8's Math Club and Dancing Feet. Miss Elise's last day with us will be Friday, January 26. We wish her all the best as she begins an exciting opportunity. Miss Elise will be greatly missed and we know she will miss all of the children and parents she has gotten to know over the years.

My Grandmother asked me to tell you she's sorry
by Fredrick Backman

A charming, warmhearted novel from the author of the New York Times bestseller A Man Called Ove.

Elsa is seven years old and different. Her grandmother is seventy-seven years old and crazy—as in standing-on-the-balcony-firing-paintball-guns-at-strangers crazy. She is also Elsa's best, and only, friend. At night Elsa takes refuge in her grandmother's stories, in the Land-of-Almost-Awake and the Kingdom of Miamas, where everybody is different and nobody needs to be normal.

When Elsa's grandmother dies and leaves behind a series of letters apologizing to people she has wronged, Elsa's greatest adventure begins. Her grandmother's instructions lead her to an apartment building full of drunks, monsters, attack dogs, and old crones but also to the truth about fairy tales and kingdoms and a grandmother like no other.

My Grandmother Asked Me to Tell You She's Sorry is told with the same comic accuracy and beating heart as Fredrik Backman's bestselling debut novel, A Man Called Ove. It is a story about life and death and one of the most important human rights: the right to be different.

The Board of Directors meet the third Wednesday of each month. Members of the public are invited.

COMING IN MARCH!

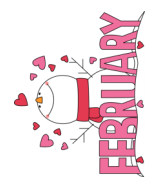

March: Tuesday, March 6, 6:00-8:00pm Recipe Tester Cookbook Club Appetizers

This is the first of what we hope will become a monthly cookbook club meeting. This month's recipes will come from appetizer cookbooks. About a month before the meeting, two cookbooks will be displayed, one in front of the reference desk and one at the circulation desk. Pick a recipe, copy (free of charge) and mark the recipe so there are no duplications. Then, on the night of the program, bring in your completed appetizer to share. Sounds like fun, right? While you enjoy each other's creations, you can talk about any problems with, additions to, or helpful hints for making the recipe.
